FC CUP QUALIFYING ROUND

SMALLING STEPS INTO 1st ROUND FOR BEDIR

Premier League manager Hakan Bedir overcame newcomer Andy Polloway in a tight Qualifying Round encounter. Polloway in his rookie season was lying 8th in Pyramid Three, there might have been 7 divisions between the two managers but Polloway held a two-point lead after the 3pm kick-offs ended on Saturday. The 17:30 kick-off Manchester United hosted Newcastle, Polloway

Chris Smalling heads United into the lead and secured the vital points for Bedir had Eliot of Newcastle in goal only gaining a point whilst Bedir had Chris Smalling who scored to gaining 7 points turning the 2-point deficit into a 4-point lead. Bedir benefited from the automatic substitution of Watford's Mariappa whose 6 points virtually cancelled out Polloways Watford defender Fermenta. With one match to go both managers had one player each, Amazingly both scored and both got 3 bonus points meaning no change in the overall match, Polloway was dreaming of victory when Stokes Choupo-Moting scored first but Bedir celebrated when Brighton's Gross equalised in more ways than one.

SHERRY OUT

Last Seasons runner-up Daniel Sherry has lost in the Qualifying Round. Sherry had a difficult draw coming up against Steve Shew the only manager to have won the FC Cup twice. Sherry's team had all played after the Saturday 3pm kick-off, Aguero hadn't played then the 5:30 Teams were announced

Lukaku scores against Newcastle

Phil Jones would not be playing so Sherry would have two automatic subs his team had scored 60 points. Shewy had 48 points after his automatic sub also for Phil Jones Sherry could not score any more points but Shewy had his captain to play in the 5:30 kick-Off Romelu Lukaku and Brighton's Pascal Gross to play in the Monday night game. Lukaku came up trumps scoring 12 points to level the match. Gross just needed to avoid a booking but he more than secured victory for Shewy with a goal and 3 bonus points scoring 10 points to send Sherry out in the Qualifying round after that amazing run to the best cup final ever last season.

FC CUP QUALIFYING ROUND

Richarlison scores against West Ham.

TRANSFER LOSS

Stephen Loss will look at his transfer policy as being the reason he is out of the Cup. Whilst last season FC Cup winner Omid Afzalalghom will be thinking that Watford's Richarlison won this Qualifying Round tie for him. With just two fixtures remaining Loss was 3 points ahead. Watford's Richarlison's goal gaining him 6 points moving Omid into a 2 point lead. Both managers had Brighton's Gross adding 10 points to their scores Omid also had Lewis Dunk adding a point another point. Loss was left to reflect on his two transfers which cost him 4 points Fraser Forster for Jack Butland and Christian Eriksson for Deli Alli both only scoring 2 points without those two transfers Loss would have progressed.

WARD & AYRES TO DO IT AGAIN

Former FC Cup winner Cedric Ayres will have to replay Peter Ward to see who will advance to the 1st Round. Ayres won the FC Cup in 2008 started this match with a four point's advantage as Peter Ward had made two transfers costing 4 points. After the Saturday 3pm Kick-Offs Ayres had a 2 point lead with his captain Chelsea's Morarata hit 18 points. The late kick off saw Ward's captain take the field Romelu Lkjaku who hit 12 points with Phil Jones missing out Bournemouth's Nathan Ake came off the bench to add another 6 points to put Ward 57-49 ahead. Going into the last match of the Gaameweek Ward still had his 8 point lead. Ward had Brighton's Knockheart who would score 2points whilst Ayres had Stoke's Chuopo-Moting who would score and gain 3 bonus points to hit a total of q0 and send the tie into a replay.

Matches to be played Gameweek 14

Due to the time in between the Qualifying Round and First Round we are unable to fully preview the First Round. We are just going to asses one match the FC World is now following Hakan Bedir after he Andy Polloway. Hakan has been drawn against Heath Cram of the Conference. Bedir is struggling in the Premier League rock bottom losing his last League match by a single point to Michael Lynn who is in 5th. Bedir is out of the Champions League and is hoping to recapture that 2010 run to the Semi-Final Which also saw him start to move up the leagues. Whilst his opponent is the OCnference he has one major trophy to his name the Pyramid Cup 2015. Currently 4th in the Conference Heath is chasing his fourth successive promotion. Quarter-Finals has been his best run in the FC Cup so far.

We always find it interesting to see how many managers form each Super20 league are left in the competition-

SUPER20 LEAGUE	MANAGERS IN THE COMPETITION

Editorial

Dear Fantasy Challenge Members,

I wanted to take this chance to apologise for the mistakes made in this seasons FC Cup.

Several seasons ago I did actually put in place a check for all cup draws to make sure no manager appeared in the draw more than once unfortunately I did not do the check as with the gameweeks coming thick and fast I rushed to get the website updated and wanted to work on this issue of FC World.

Thanks to Neil Dawson & Marc Bolton who pointed out the mistakes in the draw this meant I had to figure out what had gone wrong and stop (re-write) this edition of FC World.

Also I had not checked the Gameweeks and the mid-week set of matches Gameweek 14 which is when the FC Cup 1st Round took place caught me out.

I know several managers like to look at their fixtures and do play the game like match play, I am sorry that you could not plan your team selections in advance. I wanted to announce the draw in this forum but then had to release the draw on the website as I was struggling to put the FC World together and thought I had more time and was going to feature the replays, a stunning three replays in the Qualifying Round, but then instead of having a few days with the midweek fixtures meant I only had two days to turn around the FC World.

Due to this I will now publish the next round of the FC Cup when the previous round results are complete.

I hope that this has not spoilt your enjoyment or participation in the game and hope that you enjoy the rest of the season.

Paul Richardson
