THE SEASON OPENER

Fantasy Challenge 18th Season

WHAT GLORY AWAITS YOU

Super 20 Leagues 14th season

Introduction

So firstly, an apology that I had to send you the opening Gamweek fixtures in an email, currently I am unable to upload to the website an issue with my hosting company which is not just affecting my website.

Enough of the bad news it is the opening day of the season and we all have high hopes for our own teams and our Fantasy ambitions, whether fighting for a title, Promotion or cup success at this point we are all confident that this is going to be our Year.

This is going to be a much bigger issue than normal due to website issue. Over the following pages you will get all the information about this seasons Champions League, Pyramid Cup, New Life Cup and FC Cup.

The FC Expert will also give predictions where every manager will finish in their Super20 Division. Due to the issue with the website each manager will have their complete super20 League fixtures published. As I know some of you even at this early stage like to study who you are playing in the upcoming gameweeks and check out your opponents team and adjust your side accordingly. At the bottom of your fixture list will be your predicted position in your Super20 League.

I am pleased to say that whilst I have been compiling this opening season opener document, I have been able to update some of the website. It seems that the hosting company have not solved all the problems but it is getting better. Currently I have been able to update all the Super20 League pages, Overall League, Champions League and FC Cup Preliminary Round page. I am unable to update the player pages and the Pyramid Cup which is why in the document I have included the first weeks matches in this competition which take place in Gameweek 2.

I wish you all the best for the season.

NEW LIFE CUP Information

2019-2020 sees the seventh season of the 'New Life Cup'. The competition named after the now defunct New Life FC who Fantasy Challenge sponsored, it is also aptly named as it will be a contest for managers who finish 3rd in their Champions League Group and Pyramid Cup Group. These managers will qualify for this competition.

The New Life Cup will be a knockout competition with a similar format to the Champions League and Pyramid Cup knock out stages, the competition will be over two legs until the final which will take place in Gameweek 38.

There is one thing to be aware that the 1st Round will have seedlings, with all Champions League managers kept apart, so each match in the First round will see a former Champions League manager take on a Pyramid Cup managers.

After this first round Managers will go into a hat and be drawn out for the subsequent rounds.

FC CUP Information

Managers need to be placed between 1st and 76th at the end of Gameweek 10 to avoid the Qualifying Round.

AT THE END OF GAMEWEEK 10

Managers placed 1st – 76th in the Overall League go into the FC Cup First Round

Managers placed 77th – 180th in the Overall League go into the FC Cup Qualifying Round

GAMEWEEK 10 Starts Friday 25th October at 19:00 – Finishes Sunday 27th October

FC Cup Qualifying Round Gameweek 12 which starts Saturday 9th November at 14:00

You can see how you are getting on and if you will avoid the Qualifying Round by looking at the FC Cup Preliminary Round page on the website.

The FC Expert

Last season the FC Expert predicted where every manager was going to finish in their Super20 League. He actually did this in Gameweek 4 last season, the FC expert assured me last season that the first 4 gameweeks had not influenced any of the predictions and that in fact a formula for working the leagues out had been formulated. Here we see just how well that formulas worked last season. Then over the following pages you will see every manager in each league we have shown their full season league fixtures with where the FC Expert thinks you will finish.

TRANSPARENCY

Over the years many of you have asked if I take money out of the game, some have even expressed that they think that I should. Well I do although if worked out on an hourly rate not a great sum. Over the course of the season I spend roughly 2 hours a week doing the update. However, this can increase to 6 plus hours when doing a FC Cup FC World update. At the start of the season I often take a day off not two days off to set up the website, this year I took the Friday off. When the cup finals come around, I also take time off to do all the previews. I am never sure if these extra parts of the game are appreciated fully or not, I do receive good feedback from several of you which is always appreciated.

Here is a breakdown of Fantasy Challenge's accounts ensuring transparency between me and you the managers that take part: -

	IN	OUT	Balance
Entrance Fees	£5,400		£5,400
Paypal Deductions		£4.58	£5,395.42p
Web Fees (12 Months)		£143.88	£5,251.54p
Prize Money		£4,120	£1,131.54p

THE FUTURE

Over recent seasons I have become slightly concerned about the growth of the game. In the past I have mentioned about putting a cap on the number of players taking part to 160. My reasoning being that with 160 managers in the game for a new manager it could take 7 seasons to get to the Premier League with consecutive promotions. The last few seasons we have exceeded the 160 mark and this season we have expanded to 180 managers. An observation that I have made in the last three seasons is that more newer managers are signing up than those dropping out but enough managers are dropping out that virtually the whole of the bottom division receives a lucky promotion. This season all managers in Last seasons Pyramid Three have ended up in Pyramid Two.

I have made a revelation looking into the configuration of the game and have now decided that I will go up to 192 managers. Why this figure, it would see both the Champions League and Pyramid Cups have 96 managers in each competition comprising of 16 Groups of 6 managers. I certainly do not want to create a new cup competition for managers below this level. So that for me is an ideal capping point. It would see the creation of a Pyramid Four division in the Super20 Leagues it would see a strange configuration as Pyramid Three would have 19 managers and Pyramid Four 13 managers. The reason for not having 20 managers in Pyramid Three is to reduce a league have loads of rest weeks. If I increased Pyramid Three to 20 managers and had 12 managers in Pyramid Four. Pyramid Four managers would play each other 3 times in the season and have 5 gameweeks where they have no matches. With 13 managers they play each other 3 times and have one Gameweek as a double header meaning no gameweeks where they do not have a match.

I am happy with the current prize structure as it gives all managers (New and existing) the same opportunities to win prize money. The exception of the Super Twenty Cup, but I feel the aim has to be to get into the Premier League even if it could take 7 plus seasons to get there.

One thing I can predict unfortunately none of us are going to become millionaires from Fantasy Challenge.
